

FLUENCY PRACTICE – FIRST 100 WORDS

The people
Who will make it?
He called me.
When would you go?
One or two
Come and get it.
This is a good day.
Look for some people.
Out of the water
Have you seen it?
We like to write.
It's about time.
She said to go.
He has it.
Now and then
Not now
It's been a long time.
Then we will go.
May I go first?
That dog is big.
Did you see it?
There was an old man.
See the water
When will we go?
Number two
Go down.
A long way to go
For some of your people
Another great sound
It's only me.
Live and play
Most of the animals
My last name
Think before you act
It turned out well.
Through the line
Same time tomorrow
The following day
Show us around.
Another old picture
Put it there
My home is large.
This must be it
The men asked for help

Write it down.
You and I
We had their dog.
No way
How long are they?
How many words?
Can you see?
I like him.
A long time
Could you go?
All day long
The other people
Which way?
What are these?
But not me
At your house
Will you be good?
Now is the time.
Write your name.
Get on the bus.
The first word
It may fall down.
As big as the first
How did they get it?
More people
All or some
When did they go?
A new place
Give it back
I know why.
A good man
Our best things
That's very good
Mother says to now.
I work too much.
Right now
Tell the truth
We cam home.
Form two lines.
Write one sentence
Where does it end?
Give it away.
Hand it over.
A different land

By the water
What will they do?
What did they say?
A number of people
More than the other
Part of the time
Sit down.
So there you are.
We are here.
One more time
Into the water
Up in the air
Each of us
If we were older
Go find her.
From my room
Give them to me.
An angry cat
This is my cat.
Two of us
It's no use
With his mom
But not for me
From her to there
Look up.
Did you like it?
Over the river
Take a little
Only a little
Three years ago
After the game
Just the same
Where are you?
I need help.
Any old time.
Mother means it.
A little boy
We want to go.
A small house also Set it up.
I don't feel well.
Read the sentence.
Such a big house
They went here.

Get to the point
Try your best.
Study and learn
The good American
Back off.
Good things
The air is warm.
Where is the world
I am an American
Right now
Home sweet home
You must be right.
Help me out.
Near the car
In the country
Below the water
Keep it up.
The light in your eyes
We saw the food.
We started the fire.
Do it often
A few good men
It seemed too good.
It's hard to open
In the beginning
We got together
It's my life
Run for miles.
It's time to eat.
Stop the music.
State your case.
A very important person
The young girl
A good idea
White clouds
I hear the waves.
Near the sea
The long list
Above the clouds
The peaceful Indians
Next to me
A group of Indians
The first day of school

Because we should.
Move over.
Kind of nice
Change your clothes.
It turned out well.
Answer the phone.
Read my letters.
We need more.
Such a mess
It's a small world.
Around the clock
Tell the truth.
I think so.
Between the lines
Add it up.
Plants and flowers
Plant the trees.
In my head
Close the door.
It never happened.
We walked for miles.
Don't open the door.
Along the way
Something good
Those other people
We left it here
Always be kind
Once upon a time
Until the end
Read your book.
I miss you.
I took the car.
My feet hurt.
It began to grow.
Too soon
Almost enough
Talk to my father.
My family
Watch the game
I like being on a team
A few children
He started to cry.
Almost four miles

Even the animals
We found it here.
Spell your name.
Play it again.
It's your place.
Turn the page.
It's still here.
I study in school.
Point it out.
Big and small
Show and tell
Good and plenty
Read the book.
My own father
Read every story.
Will it last?
Light the fire.
Under the earth
The big city
A good thought
Stay a while.
You might be right.
Next time
For example
A group of friends
Both children
Read the paper
Is it really true?
A second later
Sing your song.
On my side
So far so good.
The dark night
Watch the river.
Leave it to me.
Let me carry it.
The young face
I cut myself
Without a care
The tall mountains
A long life
I hear the sea.
